

Claim No. 161.

Under Article 11. Treaty of 14th June 1866 with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Diana Quabner, Aged 40, a free woman of color of the Creek Nation, and widow of Texas Bruner, deceased, being duly sworn, (in the English language) deposes and says: Whilst living at her home, on the Arkansas River, about 3 miles from the Creek Agency, and sometime in May 1863, she was compelled by the Rebels to fly from the same, and went with her husband to Gibson where her husband enlisted in the 1st Indian Regiment and died soon afterwards, of Cholera: that she remained in Gibson until close of the war, and then returned to the Creek Nation. Further: At the time she so fled her home, she owned and possessed in her own right, all the property hereinafter named, and necessarily abandoned and lost the same -

So says:

14	Fourteen horses.	Valued at	$ 1160.00
10	Ten Cattle $150 one Mule $200		350.00
	House and Kitchen Furniture &c		65.00
	Making a total value of	$	1575.00

Fifteen hundred and seventy five dollars and that she never recovered the same or any part thereof. Further saith not

The undersigned, Thomas Bruner & Cesar Bruner, both Free Men of Color, of the Creek Nation, being jointly examined and sworn, do depose and say: They are not interested in the foregoing claim of Liana Suabner in any manner: that they have heard her deposition read to them and know its contents to be true and correct, and that, at the time of her flight from home, she did own, in her proper right, and possess, and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property set forth in her deposition — And these deponents do not further say.

Awards

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. Also the status of claimant. The amount claimed, however, is in some instances, considered excessive. Upon inquiry, it is found the values of the different kinds of property at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows:

Horses:-

$30.00 Each,

Cattle:-

5.00 ..

Mules:-

100.00 ..

and for the following one-half the claimed value:-

House & Kitchen furniture, - &c, -

In consideration of these, and all other facts attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant Diana Quabner Six hundred and two dollars, fifty cents.
